

THE LITTLE WITCH

I´m the little Witch. She´s the little Witch.
I have a talking raven. Abraxas is his name.
I live in a witch´s house. She lives in a witch´s house.
Of course I have a broomstick. Of course! Of course! Of course!

She casts a little spell and when she does it well,
you see magic, magic, magic! – Yes you do.
I cast a little spell and when I do it well,
you see magic, magic, magic! – Yes you do.

gesprochen

Abraxas, say "Hello" to the children. "Hello to the children!"

No, Abraxas: "Hello" to the children.

"Oh, hello, children!" Yes, much better!

"Hello, Abraxas!"

I´m really very young. For a witch she´s really young.
A hundred and twenty-seven years old. And that´s not very old!
I have a witchcraft book, a huge old book.
I´m very good at witchcraft. Of course! Of course! Of course!

Each day she does some tricks - on Sundays five or six.
Oh it´s magic, magic, magic! – Yes it´s true.
Each day I do some tricks - on Sundays five or six.
Oh it´s magic, magic, magic! – Yes it´s true.

Sometimes she makes mistakes, turns children into snakes.
Then it´s tragic, tragic, tragic! – Yes it is!
Sometimes I make mistakes, turn children into snakes.
Then it´s tragic, tragic, tragic! – Yes it is!
