

NOT AFRAID

I'm not afraid of pirates, I'm not afraid of the dark.
I don't mind going out at night or walking through the park.
I'm not afraid of giants, no they don't bother me.
And every time I meet one, I invite it home to tea!

I'm not afraid of spiders, they're quiet and they're small.
I'm not afraid of rattle-snakes, they don't scare me at all.
I'm not afraid of dragons, well, some of them are shy.
I'm not afraid of vampires, but I can't tell you why.

A vulture doesn't scare me, and sharks leave me cold.
Monsters often tell me that I am very bold.
From the wildest mountains to the stormy sea,
I don't mind a little bit. Nothing frightens me!

*Are you afraid of pirates? No, we're not afraid!
*Are you afraid of dragons? No, we're not afraid!
*Are you afraid of dentists? No, we're not afraid!
*Are you afraid of teachers? Aaaaaaah!

We're not afraid of pirates, we're not afraid of the dark.
We don't mind going out at night or walking through the park.
From the wildest mountains to the stormy sea
I don't mind a little bit. Nothing frightens me!
From the wildest mountains to the stormy sea
We don't mind a little bit. Nothing frightens me!

We're not afraid of lions!
We're not afraid of tigers!

From the wildest mountains to the stormy sea,
We don't mind a little bit. Hey, you're as bold as me!
