

OVER THE SEA

A boat for a king and queen,
The finest you've ever seen!
All on board! All on board! All on board!
Everybody on board!

We're standing at the mast,
Going home at last.
Over the sea, over the sea,
We're going home, that's where I want to be.
(that's where we want to be!)

The South-West wind is high
And it's time to say goodbye.
All on board! All on board! All on board!
Everybody on board!

A good captain, a sturdy crew!
The sea is friendly, the sky is blue!
Over the sea, over the sea,
We're going home, that's where I want to be.
(that's where we want to be!)

Lift the anchor, hoist the sail!
This is the end of our tale.
Over the sea, over the sea,
We're going home, that's where I want to be.

Over the sea, over the sea,
We're going home, that's where I want to be.
