

SITUATION FOR A SONG

Throughout the countless centuries
Before the printed word
And newsmen and historians came along,
The minstrels roamed the country
To relate their news abroad.
They described the situation with a song.

And the soldiers past and present
Who go marching side by side,
To quell their fears and keep their spirits strong,
And knowing that before them
Many fellow men have died,
They brave the situation with a song.

CHORUS:
Songs for the young and the old,
Sung by the weak and the bold,
Hoping their tale will be told.
Where people feel the need to show
On which side they belong,
You'll find a situation for a song.

CHORUS (first half)

For the working men and women
Who assert their legal rights,
The struggle may be difficult and long.
When the odds are quite against them,
To regain their will to fight,
They ease the situation with a song.

CHORUS

There are writers and composers.
Both anonymous and famed,
Who see the world's injustice and its wrong.
With the means at their disposal
They are doing what they can
To improve the situation with a song.

CHORUS
