

JUST ONE

1.
I've got just one thing to tell you, right from the start:
I have just one head and I have just one heart,
Just one bottom, only one back.
But you're very clever, so I'm sure you know all that!

2.
Just one thing I'd like to add; I guess you know that too:
I have just one tummy. Well, imagine having two!
Just one tongue and just one mouth, of course.
And that's true for a rabbit, for a cow and for a horse!

CHORUS

"One, just one", says my Uncle John.
"That's for sure: you have no more -
Just that single one!" repeat

3.
Just one more thing, perhaps you ought to check:
Between your head and shoulders you've got just one neck.
And you have to face it: you only have one nose.
You can't say: "Thank you, very nice - I'll just have two of those!"

CHORUS

"One, just one", says my Uncle John.
"That's for sure: you have no more -
Just that single one!" repeat
Just one!

BRIDGE

"Hold your thumb up high!" says John.
"Either this or that thumb – just one!"
"Straighten out that thumb", says John.
Hey that's looking good now. That's your number - one!"

4.
Just one more thing before this song is through:
There's only one of me and there's only one of you!
Yes we're all unique, it's really plain for all to see.
So you just be yourself and I'll just keep on being me.

CHORUS

Just one. Just one. Just one. Just one.
