

SIX AT LAST!

CHORUS:

See that dice there on the table!
Six - at last I've thrown a six!
Now I'm coming out to get you!
That's why I'm laughing – you're not!

CHORUS (Choir underlined repeats, soloist sings line 2 and 4):

See that dice there on the table!
Six - at last I've thrown a six!
Now he's coming out to get us!
That's why I'm laughing – we're not!

1.

Yes, but up until now I felt cheated somehow
Compared to the luck that all of you had.
I had dice-throwing blues, all those threes and twos
Or ones – it was driving me mad!

Really, a crying shame.
And you all kept grinning: "It's only a game!"
Well, what you say is true!
Now I see that too. (Yeah)

2.

Isn't it strange how quick luck can change?
First it's a flop and then you're on top!
Round after round I was struck to the ground.
Well, you know, really low.

BRIDGE

Suddenly, how very nice!
Six little dots on the dice!

Not a five (1, 2, 3, 4, 5) Not a four (1, 2, 3, 4)
Not a three (1, 2, 3) Not a two (1, 2)
Not a one or a two or a three or a four or a five...but a six!

LAST CHORUS (part)

See that dice there on the table!
Six - at last I've thrown a six!
Now he's coming out to get us!
That's why I'm laughing – we're not!

CODA

Right, my friends, it's my turn now.
You know what this game's about:
I intend to land on each one of you
And then – knock you all out!
