

NINE TIMES

Nine times I knocked at your door.
Nine times, you were not there.
Nine times I knocked at your door.
You were not there – no one was there.

*Hello! Is anybody there?
Nobody home!*

When are you coming back?
When are you coming back?

*Nine times.
Yes, I knocked nine times.
There was no answer.
You're not at home.
But where are you?*

When are you coming back?
When are you coming back?

Nine times. Nine times. Nine times.
"Hello!"

*Oh, you are at home!
Well, why didn't you open the door?*
